Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. §121:

I. Claims 1-50, 82, 83, 94, 95, 107, 108, drawn to a lipopeptide.

II. Claims 51-64, drawn to a method of making a lipopeptide.

III. Claims 65-70, 110-114, drawn to a method of eliciting production of an antibody.

IV. Claims 71-81, drawn to a method of inducing infertility in a subject.

V. Claims 85-93, 97-106, drawn to a method of inducing an immune response.

None of claims 84, 96 or 109 is grouped. Each of these claims is drawn to a "use". In the event that these claims are amended to recite a proper statutory class of invention, they will be grouped appropriately.

The claimed inventions are distinct.

Groups I and {III-V} are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP 806.05(h)). However, in the event that Group I is elected, and claims therein found allowable, claims drawn to methods of using the allowable lipopeptides will be rejoined for further examination.

Applicant is advised that for the response to this requirement to be complete, an election of the invention to be examined must be indicated, even if the requirement is traversed (37 C.F.R. 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently filed petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(h).

. . . .

In addition to the foregoing, applicants are required under 35 U.S.C. §121 to elect disclosed species/subgenera (as follows) for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

In the event that group I is chosen for examination, election is required of each of the following:

a) one of the following: (i) a lipopeptide per se, (ii) a contraceptive agent that comprises a lipopeptide, (iii) a composition comprising a lipopeptide and a pharmaceutically acceptable excipient, or (iv) a vaccine that comprises a lipopeptide;

b) a specific and fully defined "B cell epitope";

c) a specific and fully defined "T helper cell epitope";

d) a specific "lipid moiety".

. . . .

In the event that group II is chosen for examination, election is required of each of the following:

a) a specific and fully defined "B cell epitope" that is present in the final product;

b) a specific and fully defined "T helper cell epitope" that is present in the final product;

c) a specific "lipid moiety".

. . . .

In the event that group III, IV or V is chosen for examination, election is required of each of the following:

a) a specific and fully defined "B cell epitope";

b) a specific and fully defined "T helper cell epitope";

c) a specific "lipid moiety";

d) a specific route of administration.

Applicant is advised that a response to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a generic claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are witten in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentable distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. ∋103 of the other invention.

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.

Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
